

Watershed Management Plan Public Workshop Summary Minutes
Public Watershed Planning Workshop January 20, 2011:
Sponsored by the Mangrove Action Group of Pelican Bay

Opening Statement and Introductions by Mangrove Action Group
Mac Hatcher, Sr. Environmental Specialist, Collier County
Jennifer Hecker, Director of Natural Resource Policy, Conservancy of SWF
Nicole Ryan, Director of Governmental Relations, Conservancy of SWF
Amber Crooks, Natural Resources Specialist, Conservancy of SWF
Jim Hoppensteadt, Pelican Bay Foundation President

Evolution of Watershed Planning by Mac Hatcher

- Basins
- Model Development
- Water Quantity - water budgets
- Water Quality - Impairments
- Natural Resources

Conservancy Perspective on Water Management Planning by Jennifer Hecker

Break (3:05-3:15)

Natural Resources Functional Assessment by Mac Hatcher

Growth Management Aspects of Watershed Planning, Nicole Ryan

Fertilizer Ordinance by Mac Hatcher (3:50-4:00)

Best Management Practices in Pelican Bay by Jim Hoppensteadt

- Pelican Bay staff have taken fertilizer BMP training
- Contracting with Terrell Hall and Associates to evaluate operation
- Will adjust operation as needed

Conservancy Fertilizer Ordinance Recommendations by Amber Crooks

Final Audience Questions and Comments:

Marcia Cravens submitted a resolution from the Mangrove Action Group recommending a WBID for the Clam Bay preserve area.

