

Non-Code and Prohibited Plant Species

Non Code Trees. The following plant species may be planted but shall not count towards required code trees.

- Eucalyptus (Eucalyptus spp.)
- Silk Oak (Grevillea robusta)

Control Species. The following plant species shall not be planted within 500 feet of conservation easements and retained natural vegetation areas.

- Paper Mulberry (Broussonetia papyrifera)
- Wedelia (Wedelia trilobata)

Prohibited Species. The following plant species shall not be planted in Collier County.

- Ear Tree (Enterolobium cyclocarpum)
- Indian Rosewood (Dalbergia sissoo)
- Chinaberry Tree (Melia azedarach)
- Chinese Tallow Tree (Sapium sebiferum)
- Bishopwood (Bischofia javanica)
- Shoe Button Ardisia (Ardisia elliptica)
- Australian inkberry (Scaevola frutescens)
- Cuban Laurel Fig (Ficus microcarpa, nitida)

Prohibited Exotic Species. The following species or seeds thereof shall not be grown, offered for sale, or transported inter-county or intra-county. These plants are required to be removed from all developed sites, prior to Certificate of Occupancy and shall be maintained thereafter.

- Melaleuca spp.
- Climbing Fern (Lygodium spp.)
- Brazilian Pepper (Schinus terebinthifolius)
- Java Plum (Syzygium cumini)
- Australian Pine (Casuarinaceae spp.)
- Catclaw Mimosa (Mimosa pigra)
- Downy Rosemyrtle (Rhodomyrtus tomentosus)
- Earleaf Acacia (Acacia auriculiformis)
- Air Potato (Dioscorea bulbifera)
- Women's Tongue (Albizia lebeck)
- Lather Leaf (Colubrina asiatica)
- Carrotwood (Cupaniopsis anacardioides)

For pictures and descriptions of these exotics please visit the Collier County Natural Resources Department.