What is Mail-A-Book?

Mail-A-Book is a free service that brings the Collier County Public Library to you! This special service is available to patrons who cannot get to the Collier County Public Library. This includes the elderly, the homebound, those without adequate means of transportation, and people with disabilities living in Collier County. Qualified patrons can receive books and other library materials free of charge.

Call 239-261-8208 ext. 15 or e-mail rbass@collier-lib.org for more information and to begin the registration process.

How materials are selected?

As a Mail-A-Book customer you may request any materials you want, or our staff is available to make a selection for you based on your interests.

What types of materials are available?

- Regular Print Books
- Large Print Books
- Paperbacks
- CD Audio Books
- Playaways (preloaded MP3 audio books)
- Music CD's
- Movies DVD's

Free Service and Delivery!

- Materials are delivered in a pre-paid mailing pouch to your residence
- Enjoy your materials for up to 6 weeks
- To return materials, simply put them in the same bag in which they were delivered; reverse the address label on the outside of the bag so the Library address is showing, and return via U.S. Mail

Ask our Mail-A-Book representative about other library electronic products available to you. Are you interested in downloading eBooks or audio books, how about reading your favorite magazine online or perhaps you would like to start a music library? All of these are available free from our library website. www.collierlibrary.org
