

Here is the update for the week of 4/3/2017 for Radio Road:

- Foxtail Palm was planted we are having difficulty finding Crowns of Thorn and the Jatropha that match what is existing. (Jatropha was found and will be planted week of 4/10/2017)
- Still working on finding a Crown of Thorn match will update when found.
- Controller Issue on Median 3 is still in standalone and controller repairs are in progress. Monitoring situation and system is watering fine.( No Change)
- Hannula through the maintenance contract will start trimming the plants during the month of April.
- Scheduled fertilization of sod areas to start the week of 4/17/2017.

Here is the update for the week of 4/17/2017 for Radio Road:

- Peanut will be completed by the end of this week. (Completed Saturday 4/22/2017 )
- Still waiting on the controller part repair to come back from back from California for median 3.
- Hannula through the maintenance contract will continue trimming the plants during the month of April.
- Fertilization of sod areas are continuing.
- Continuing evaluation of irrigation heads and changing to T-5 heads for better coverage. (Completed 4/21/2017)