Public Services Division Changes

Effective Feb. 5, the following departments and services are moving from the Community Development and Environmental Services Division to the Public Services Division: Housing, Sea Turtle and Beach Renourishment.

“Our division team is happy to have new team members working with our existing departments and to establish the new Coastal Zone Management Department to focus on beach renourishment, dredging projects and maintenance of beach facilities,” said Public Services Division Administrator Marla Ramsey.

The Public Services Division PIO, Camden Smith, will now field media inquiries for:

- Parks & Recreation programs
- Sea turtle monitoring
- Coastal Zone Management Department including beach renourishment and coastal projects
- Housing & Human Services Department (newly named) including financial assistance for the indigent and affordable housing outreach projects
- Museum Department programs
- Extension Services Department
- Libraries
- Veteran Services
- Domestic Animal Services

Smith may be reached by calling (239) 530-5326 or cell phone 438-8088.
